Don't forget us!

— a place of remembrance

by Michael Plankensteiner

Don't forget us!

At the beginning of the project was a conversation with a survivor of the prison. He was imprisoned by the Communist regime in several camps for political reasons in the late 1940s. One of them was Mr. Octavian Bjoza. Currently, he is the head of the organization "Asociația foștilor deținuți politici din România", which is committed to the concerns of former prisoners. He was awarded several times. One of the tasks of the organization is to give a name to dead people who have been buried in mass graves without tombstones.

This was also the basic idea of my concept. To give the dead a name again. Historically, it has a long history to make the names of people who have fallen in disgrace disappear. The "Damnatio Memoriae" was already in ancient Rome the worst form of punishment for a ruler. His image was removed from statues, coins, busts, etc. As well as his name removed from inscriptions. The same was done in communist regimes. One of the most famous examples is Nikolai Yezhov, who was later erased from a picture where he was seen with Stalin after he had fallen into disfavor.

Prisoners have been scrounging their names, messages, drawings, etc. into the prison walls ever since. These graffiti are a silent sign that says, do not forget us. They show what happened in these places and what the prisoners thought. Often these inscriptions show uncensored news of the prisoners, as they are overlooked by the guards. The main points of my concept are to create a memorial to all prisoners. Regardless of gender, religion or their origin. Currently, an Orthodox chapel is being built on the site. In addition, such a structure excludes certain groups from the culture of remembrance. The building should not take a political position. As the phase of the communist regime in Romania is still relatively young, there is no political consensus among the general population. Furthermore, there is only a conditional memory culture on this topic. Therefore, the monument should stimulate the discourse and give the victims a dignified memorial. It should give the victims a face and “forget us” shows.

Building description:

The building is made of reused bricks, which are found on the site in large numbers and reinforced concrete. As a main material, the tile was chosen because it is a hard material and is not used in this form in the local building culture. He is like a foreign body, which was brought by force into the landscape of the Danube Delta. The actual structure is located on a two-level base of reinforced concrete. This increase gives it a grandeur and emphasizes its special meaning. The floor plan is designed to work like a labyrinth. After two turns you get into the actual main room. In this room only brick walls are visible around one. The only thing that is just as perceptible is the sky. The building has no roof. This opening should show that there is the possibility of freedom. Two of the interior walls are clad in rough white plaster. In these are the names of the former prisoners and their data are incised. Just as there are prisoners. These graffiti inscriptions are protected by a glass plate in front of them. The purpose of this arrangement is to create the feeling of captivity just as it was for the prisoner. And the names scratched in the plaster say "Don't forget us!"
